

Focus Statement: Learning to talk about our faith is rooted in our bodies and experiences, which reveal both our shared humanness and our different stories. Our human encounters with suffering can awaken us to our common need for each other and God, and call us to claim joy and love as an act of resilient faith.

Call to Worship

Based on 1 Corinthians 12: 4-13

Gathered in this place,

We are the body of Christ.

The hands and feet,

The eyes and ears,

The heart and lungs–

All parts of the whole,

Participating in the miraculous body.

Together we are a body that worships,

A body that sings,

A body that works,

A body that rests,

A body that rejoices in the wonder of serving and loving God together.

We are the body of Christ,

Gathered in this place.

Thanks be to God!

Offering and Offertory

Offering response

We walk by faith,

we live by faith,

we give by faith.

God of great gifts,

you have given us so much,

accept these gifts from our hands,

our faithful response to your abundant grace. Amen.
